

Born slippy

While we don't expect anything to ever replace the humble thong in your footwear heart, canvas espadrilles (slip-ons) will be everywhere. Comfy and cheap (so you can afford to pick up a bunch of them in different colours and patterns), you can also chuck 'em in the washing machine when they get grubby. Also look out for lace-up versions that are just the right amount of "dressed up" to get you into that awesome new bar.
